

Class :8th
Subject:Science

Q1. imagine that hormones suddenly stopped working in the human body during adolescence, what physical, mental and emotional changes would occur. Explain

Q2. A teenager, awards, eats healthy food and spends most of the days indoors with little physical activity. Predict how this lifestyle may affect growth and development during adolescence.

Q3. Imagine electroplating had never been discovered. How would this affect industries such as automobile manufacturing, jewellery, making electronics?

Q4. Suppose all liquids conduct electricity equally well. How would this change the way we test solutions and design electrical devices?

Q5.Draw a flow diagram showing the changes that occur during puberty in boys and girls.